

Some phrases to initiate IELTS answers

- There are many / several ... but [subject] / [object] comes to mind first.
- There are many/several ..., but the first thing that comes to my mind is...
- There are many/several ..., but the most ... one is

Ex: There are several items on my mind, but the most remarkable one is a table.

Alternative: "the one that stands out most is a table = the most memorable one is a table = the item that impressed me most is a table."

- There are many / multiple / several / various (...) that ...
- I know that many people have different opinions about this but...
- Individual / Personal preferences would differ from person to person, but...
- It/ that depends on ..., but
- For all the reasons stated = for all these reasons, I think that
- Not only that ~ not to mention that ~ what's more (Add more supporting ideas)
- In a word ~ in short ~ to sum up
- All things considered,.....

Ex . All things considered, I think we made the right decision.